Problems Pregnant and Parenting Teens Experience

BREAKING DOWN EDUCATIONAL BARRIERS FOR CALIFORNIA'S PREGNANT & PARENTING STUDENTS

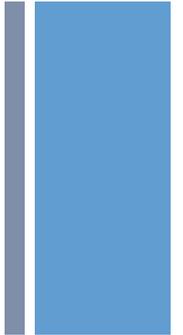

A REPORT BY THE ACLU OF CALIFORNIA

- Stigmatizing behavior in the classroom.
- Prevented from taking the courses necessary to apply to many four year colleges.
- Restricted from school activities.
- Denied a secure and private place to breastfeed or pump milk.
- Pushed out of their regular schools and into continuation schools.

Consequences of Unlawful Pregnancy/Parental Status Discrimination

- High drop-out rate
- Low probability of earning a college degree
- Decreased opportunity to be hired for higher paying jobs
- High probability of welfare dependence
- Perpetual cycle of poverty

+ Title IX and California Law

- Title IX regulations prohibit discrimination against a student based on pregnancy, childbirth, false pregnancy, termination of pregnancy, or recovery from any of these conditions.
- Schools cannot exclude pregnant students from participating in any educational program, including sports, honor societies, or extracurricular activities.
- Schools can have special instructional programs or classes for pregnant students but they must be voluntary and they must be comparable to those offered to other students

+ Title IX and California Law

- Schools must provide reasonable accommodations to pregnant students.
- Any special services provided to students who have temporary medical conditions must also be provided to pregnant students.
- A school can require a pregnant student to submit medical certification only if it also requires the same of all students under a doctor's care.
- Schools must be very careful about confidentiality of pregnancy information: protected under Constitution, HIPPA, & CA laws.

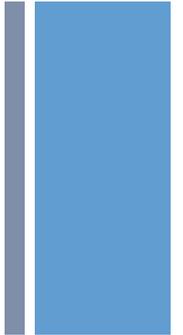

+ Title IX and California Law

- CA law provides pregnant & parenting teens these same protections:
 - California Sex Equity in Education Act: Can't apply any rule concerning a student's actual or potential parental, family, or marital status that treats students differently on the basis of sex.
 - Unruh Civil Rights Act: Business establishments, which includes schools, can't discriminate based on sex. "Sex" includes, but is not limited to, pregnancy, childbirth, or medical conditions related to pregnancy or childbirth.

Lactation Accommodations

+ Stories

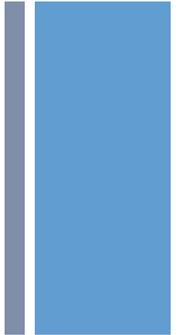

I had to pump at all hours of the night and early in the morning before school so that I could have enough milk for my baby and so that I wouldn't have to pump at school.

But even when I was at school, I still had to pump every two hours or often try to deal with the pain. Sometimes, the pain was so unbearable that I had no other choice but to walk into the public restroom and go into the stall to pump.

I eventually stopped producing the same amount of milk. My inability to feed or pump milk while at school ended up affecting my child's access to my milk at home.

+ Lactation Accommodation Law

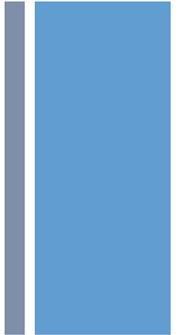

Title IX & CA Law:

- If a school provides reasonable accommodations to students with temporary medical conditions, must do the same for breastfeeding students.
- Accommodations must be made for breastfeeding employees, who are also protected from any retaliation for taking breaks to breastfeed and pump.
- Treating lactating student, employee, or parent/guardian differently or denying reasonable accommodations is sex discrimination.

ABC's of Breastfeeding: Four Recommendations

There are four simple steps that will aid the effective implementation of lactation accommodations:

1. Adopt Policy
2. Train Staff and Communicate Policy
3. Identify Staff
4. Provide Space and Time to Pump

+ Step 1: Adopt Policies

Adopt affirmative policies that support breastfeeding women and their specific lactation accommodation needs

- Make sure to have two lactation accommodations policies: one for employees and one for students
- If you don't have a policy, adopt one right away; if you do have one, review it for compliance and best practices
- CSBA has a new model lactation accommodations policy for students (5146).
- New model lactation accommodations policy for employees <http://breastfeedla.org>
- Contact BreastfeedLA, ACLU SoCal or CWLC for FREE assistance

+ Step 2: Train Staff and Communicate Policies

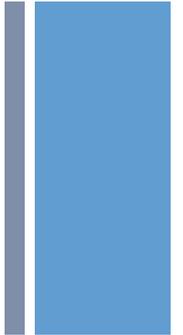

Give staff appropriate training to implement, evaluate, and monitor compliance. Inform employees, parents, and students of their rights under these policies

- Convey non-discrimination and lactation accommodations policies through multiple channels to both students (and their parents!) and staff
- Provide policies to all new hires, people who take leave
- Post information in employee/student handbook, website/Intranet, break rooms, office, the more the better
- Provide trainings to school administrators

+ Step 3: Identify Staff

Identify staff who will be responsible for implementing these policies and handling complaints:

- Designate at least one employee as the Title IX Coordinator right away
- Share the Title IX Coordinator's name and contact information in an easily searchable location on website and with the rest of the office staff
- Designate at least one HR employee for handling lactation accommodations for employees right away
- Consider creating a dedicated webpage with all relevant contact information, links to policies and a commitment to implement Title IX

+ Step 4: Provide Space and Time to Pump

Identify appropriate space and allow time for staff and students to pump, without any penalty

- Dedicate a permanent space for milk expression
- The space must be private, clean and secure and MUST NOT be a bathroom
- Provide time to express milk without penalty to employees and students
- Provide students and employees information on how to access pumps through WIC or health insurance plans

+ Private Time/Space Requirements

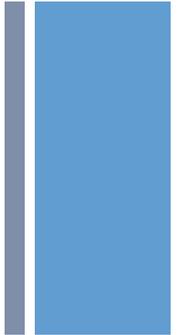

Designated space to express milk - Requirements:

- MUST NOT be a bathroom
- In close proximity to the employee's work area
- Private room that is free from intrusion
- Each time there is a need to express milk

Best practices:

- Electrical outlet
- Chair to sit and surface area to place pump
- Nearby sink with running water (for cleanup)
- Nearby refrigerator for storage
- Clean, quiet and well-lit

+ Private Time/Space Requirements

Time to express milk - Requirements:

- Reasonable amount of break time as frequently as needed for all nursing mothers (frequency and duration of milk expression may vary)
- For students: break time without incurring academic penalty and with the ability to make up any missed work

Best practices:

- Provide a teacher's aide if an employee is away from the classroom to express milk

+ Private Time/Space Requirements

Restrooms = Impermissible place to express milk

Private space with the essentials = Permissible space to express milk
